Kirshenbaum Law Offices, P.C

We congratulate our client, Saywatt Hydroelectric, LLC, a Massachusetts based hydro-electric plant operator in its recent purchase of the Mechanicsville Hydroelectric Project (“Mechanicsville”).

Mechanicsville is a hydro-electric power plant located in Thompson, Connecticut that, for the past two decades has successfully produced and supplied electrical energy to Connecticut Light and Power and regional municipalities. Warren congratulates his client on its purchase of Mechanicsville, and on the commitment that it has made to developing and sustaining the renewable energy marketplace.
